A Message From the President

The Arts Society of Queen's University welcomes you to the first in what, we hope, will be a continued series of concerts designated to put emphasis on the arts at Queen's. The Leslie Bell Singers need, for most of you, very little introduction. I would like to thank you for your attendance tonight and sincerely hope the concert meets with your approval.

I would also like to acknowledge the efforts of those who have helped to make this concert a success. Specifically, I should like to thank Dr. Bell for his understanding and co-operation; Dick Stackhouse, who headed our committee and whose effort, principally, you judge tonight; also Alford's, The Superior Restaurant, Mr. Murray at K.C.V.I., and the Queen's Post Office, for their invaluable aid in the distribution of tickets.

Again, I trust you have enjoyed yourself this evening and take this opportunity to ask for your suggestions regarding future concerts.

Ian A. Stewart,

President, Arts Society.
